NEW Y. M. C. A. PHYSICAL DIRECTOR TAKES CHARGE

J. G. Hoffer, the new Y. M. C. A. physical director, who arrived in the city last Wednesday night from Chicago, assumed active charge of the physical department Friday, succeeding Elwood S. Brown, who will in the future have charge of the social work for the association. Mr. Hoffer is a graduate of the Y. M. C. A. Training school and comes to his work fully equipped in both theory and practice. In addition to his two years in the training school he was actively engaged in athletic and gymnastic work in Colorado for a number of years. He spent two years as physical director at the Y. M. C. A. at Colorado Springs, one year as physical director at Oak Park, Ill., and one year as associate physical director at Central Y. M. C. A., Chicago. He did high-class work in all these places, and the local association is to be congratulated on securing a city last Wednesday night from Chiis to be congratulated on securing a man of such wide experience and ability. He ought to prove an excellent addition to the strong corps of athletic directors in the State.
